

COOE Occupational Health & Safety Policy

COOE Pty Ltd is committed to provide and maintain a safe and healthy work environment for its employees, contractors, customers and visitors. This responsibility extends to ensuring COOE operations do not place the local community at risk of injury or illness. This commitment is reflected in the Occupational Health and Safety (OH&S) vision:

To be recognised as a responsible service provider that actively fosters an attitude of awareness for occupational health and safety in all of our workplaces.

To fulfil this commitment COOE will:

- Establish measurable objectives and targets to ensure continued improvement is focused on eliminating work-related injury and illness.
- Ensure compliance with all legislative requirements and current industry standards within Australia and Overseas in accordance with AS/NZS 4801:2001.
- Provide and maintain a safe working environment and safe systems of work.
- Provide and maintain assets in a safe condition.
- Provide written procedures and instructions to ensure safe systems of work.
- Provide information and training to ensure employees, contractors and visitors work in a safe and healthy manner.
- Provide support and assistance for employees and opportunities to be involved in consultation on safety issues, policies and procedures.

COOE is committed to work co-operatively in consultation with employees to ensure that this policy operates effectively and that health and safety issues are regularly reviewed. This policy will be reviewed annually to ensure it remains relevant to the organisation.
